NOTICEBOARD

Church Attendance Please continue to make public health a priority and to use up the church space in ways that avoid cluster gatherings. Masks must continue to be worn and the use of hand sanitizer is essential. Thank you for your continued co-operation.

Feast of Christ The King, is what we celebrate this weekend, which marks the end of the Liturgical year. Next weekend, we begin the Season of Advent. For anybody who follows the Liturgy of the Word, we are now entering Cycle C.

The Annual St. Vincent de Paul Collection will be held on Saturday 20th & Sunday 21st November. Your support would be greatly appreciated.

Recent Emergency Appeal for Trocaire, once again shows the generosity and expression of love of all the people who contributed at very short notice. The amount raised was €3952. Those who may wish to still donate need to do so directly through Trócaire, as all parish donations are now forwarded.

Mass for Bereaved Families will be said in St. Colmans Church on Friday 26th November at 7.30pm, remembering especially those who have lost loved ones in recent years.

Knock/Barnacarroil Befriending Service Local organisations, TUS, Sicap, Alone and An Garda Siochana are currently looking to establish a Befriending Service in the Knock/Barnacarroil area. This service provides companionship to older people who would like extra social contact through a volunteer telephone call. All volunteers are trained and Garda Vetted. Anyone interested in receiving a regular phone call from a volunteer are asked to contact Garda Bernadette Breslin at Knock Garda Station or on 085-8059545 or alternatively email: bernadette.a.breslin@garda.ie. This service is strictly confidential.

Clann Mhuiris 5

Claremorris Historical Society is delighted to announce that the fifth edition of its history journal, Clann Mhuiris, will be available from the usual outlets in Claremorris from midweek. As always, this year's edition contains a wealth of interesting articles including many rare photographs, and will make an ideal Christmas gift for Claremorris people at home and abroad.

The annual Winter Market at Claremorris Town Hall Theatre is the perfect event to get you into the Christmas spirit. With over 50 stalls and exhibitors from all over Ireland, there's something for everyone.

You can browse and buy Christmas centre-pieces, wreaths, cards, decorations and novelties. There are kids' crafts, baby gifts, retro football jerseys and knitted and crocheted items. There's original artwork and photographs, mosaics, castings and paintings, sweet treats and everything in between. You could even win 1000 litres of home heating oil, and, for a small donation to Claremorris & District Lions Club, you can get your portrait taken by a professional photographer, so make sure to have your hair combed!

The market provides a chance to immerse yourself in all things festive and will bring much-needed Christmas cheer. Claremorris Town Hall Theatre, Sunday, November 28th from 11am to 5.00pm and admission is free.
