Flourish Social Prescribing Service: This service is available in Cúram every Monday. Social Prescribing is all about connecting to people, activities, hobbies, and new interests so as to keep us healthy and well. The Flourish service is ideal for any adult who feels they would like to explore ways to meet new people, develop new interests and hobbies. Flourish can support your health and wellbeing by linking you with activities, supports, and resources based in your community such as social groups, arts & creativity, physical activities, learning new skills, further education, outdoor activities, support groups and ways to self-care. Flourish offers a supportive and enjoyable way for people to do this and make the most out of their lives. If you would like to find out more, come along to a Public Information Evening in Cúram on Monday May 9th at 2.30pm. For more information please email: flourish@thefamilycentre.com or phone 094 9025900
